

Lord, Lead the Way to Zion

Thoughtfully to Alla marcìa ♩=84-102

When on a jour - ney long from our homes: "Lord, lead the way to Zi - on."
When twi - light dims the flag we call hope, "Lord, lead the way to Zi - on."
For - ward we march, each chal - lenge we face, "Lord, lead the way to Zi - on."

In hos - tile lands, at home or a - broad, our hearts hear His words: "Press on."
When day be - comes the night that we feared, His Light, in our hearts, shines on.
Walk not with pride, but hu - mil - i - ty, His foot - steps will be our own.

(Piu mosso)

1,2 Blaz - ing a trail with each step that we tread, we face, bold - ly the tri - als a head.
3 Blaz - ing a trail with each step that we tread, we face, hum - bly, the tri - als a - head, tri - als a head.

rall.

1,2,3 Fear not, press on, for the Lord is our guide, He will lead us to Zi - on with an - gels at our side.

a tempo

While on our jour - ney, far from our homes, we call to the Lord, "Lead on."
Though dark - ness veils the high - ways a - head, the Light of the Lord leads on.
March forth with faith, with hope, and with love, and call to the Lord, "Lead on."

Text and music:

Vanessa McClintock, b. 1946, LDS

Tune name: BATTALION

Copyright © 2022 by Vanessa McClintock

Psalms 119:133

1 Nephi 4:6